- A program that has created opportunities for women in technology
- Leadership of a company/organisation, thereby raising the awareness of women in technology
- The mentoring of a successful woman or women in technology

ISG SPECIAL AWARD

This award will be presented to an organisation or individual, identified by an ISG panel as deserving special recognition. This can pertain to their impact on the industry, a community, technology innovation, new business practices etc.

The winner will be selected from the general Paragon Awards entries and ISG submissions only. No nominations will be accepted externally for consideration.

ENTRY PROCESS

Nominations will be accepted until close of business Friday, 25 January 2019.

The 2019 ANZ ISG Paragon Awards™ are open to qualifying organisations across Australia and New Zealand. To be eligible for consideration, entries must meet the following criteria:

- Nominations must refer to a contract or service relationship that was active, in whole or in part, in Australia and New Zealand in 2018 / early 2019.
- All sections of the nomination form must be completed for the category or categories where the applicant seeks nomination.
- There is no limit to the number of categories for which applicants may seek nomination – but a new form must be submitted for each nomination.
- No feedback will be provided on the judging process and the decision of the judges is final.
- Nomination(s) must be received in the specified format (see the How to Enter section) by Friday, 25 January 2019 to be considered by the judging panel.
- Nominations will be accepted from both buy-side and technology/ service provider/sell-side companies.
- Finalists agree that their company names and logos may be used by ISG in Paragon Awards communications, presentations, support material, websites, etc.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Be brief! Do not exceed the word limit. Keep your submission brief and to the point, but always interesting. The use of bullet points is fine.
- Focus on outcomes and tangible results. Include the most pertinent information.
- Keep the jargon to a minimum. It can be distracting rather than enlightening.
- Complete all sections of the nomination form and try not to repeat yourself too much across the sections.
- Make sure you have permission to name your client. If any part of the submission is for judges' eyes only, then make sure that this is clearly stated.
- Remember the deadline for submission is Friday, 25 January 2019. Send your entry on time. Late submissions will not be considered.

HOW TO ENTER

1. Complete all sections of the nomination form by providing all information requested.
2. An overall limit of 850 words has been stipulated per nomination. Any entries above this word count will not be considered. This does not include your 250 - word abstract.
3. In the event of your organisation or yourself winning an Award, any information in your synopsis may be used in the announcement of why you were selected.
4. In the event your organisation becomes a finalist or the winner of an Award, you consent to your client being named (if applicable) in all marketing of the awards shortlist, unless stated in writing at the time of submission. It is not necessary to name the client, but it can considerably strengthen your submission.
5. Submit your completed nomination via email attachment to ANZ_ISG_Paragon@isg-one.com by Friday, 25 January 2019.

JUDGING PROCESS

Initial reviews of submissions and selection of 2-3 finalists for each category will be carried out by an ISG panel. All submissions will be treated, in general, as confidential. They will not be shared outside of the judging team without permission until finalists are announced. Details of the finalists will be announced Friday, 8 February 2019 on the ISG website – www.isg-one.com.

Winners for each category, with the exception of the ISG Special Award, will be selected by an independent judging panel.

All winners will be announced at the ISG Paragon Awards Gala Dinner on Wednesday, 27 March 2019 at Westin Sydney. Each award category will include a winner and two runners-up.

5 REASONS TO PARTICIPATE

1. Recognise and celebrate your most valued assets

The ISG Paragon Awards™ Recognise the hard work and achievements of your clients and employees. Taking part can cement good client relationships, boost staff morale and improve motivation.

2. Gain recognition for your brand

Awards can be an overlooked tool in your marketing toolbox. Being shortlisted for the ISG Paragon Awards™ can improve brand awareness and promote your business to an audience who are specifically interested in the technologies, products and services that you provide – and who may now have another reason to consider your company.

3. Benchmark your services

The application process forces you to look at your products, services and results vis-a-vis your competitors. You can better understand how you stand out from the competition.

4. Increase your credibility

Highlight your successes through a third-party endorsement of your services. Your work will be reviewed by potential clients, as well as the world's leading global technology research and advisory firm, with extensive influence across the globe.

5. Promote your success

We will promote the ISG Paragon Awards™ finalists and winners across our website, media outreach and via a number of social media channels. We average around 25,000 visitors to our site per month, have more than 25,000 subscribers, and many more thousands of Facebook, LinkedIn, and Twitter followers.
